An inventive blend of puppets, origami, live painting and video images bring this well loved Chinese tale to life. Liang dreams of being a painter but is too poor to buy himself a paintbrush. Join him on a magical adventure where dreams can come true.

"The show clearly captivated the children and the adults were appreciative too. The mix of shadow, film and puppets worked well and the innovative use of water as a paint. The show I saw had 2-70 year olds in the audience and it worked for them all"
Ian Woods (General Manager Norwich Puppet Theatre)

Devised and performed by Gemma Khawaja
Directed by Joy Haynes and Zannie Fraser
All photographs by Rod Penn
